Jack Huddle has combined a career in architecture with the arts of glass blowing and painting. His latest endeavor is a series of original and creative oil paintings.

Although Jack's paintings in the Abstract Impressions exhibit vary substantially, almost all incorporate a dominant color to entice the viewers to first establish a specific mood through which their imaginations then interpret the abstraction of the subject matter.

Continuously inspired by the biblical description of the Creation and the marvels and mystery of nature, Jack is in 2011 presenting an exhibit of his most recent paintings.

The Art League Gallery is located in the Greer Gallery of the Arts Center in Shelter Cove. The gallery is open Monday- Friday from 10:00 AM till 4:00 PM, Saturdays from 1PM till 4:00 PM and one hour before shows in the Wallace Theater in the evenings. All of the paintings are for sale. In addition to the featured artist, the gallery will be displaying the work of other member artists as well.
