

Five Local Favorites at USCB

Written by Editor

Tuesday, 28 August 2012 11:48

USCB Center for the Arts will be hosting five local Beaufort artists for an exhibition of original art and photography. The opening reception will be on Friday, September 7th starting at 6:00 p.m. and running until 7:30 p.m. Plan to come out and enjoy the bounty of Lowcountry creativity. The gallery is located at 801 Carteret St., for more info call 843-521-4145.

Bill Mead believes Beaufort is surrounded by some of the most beautiful landscapes in the world. The colors here are subtle, deep greens and rich browns. These paintings are basically landscape and still life combined; an attempt to merge the spiritual and the sensual. Bill used to be partial to tragedies, but experience has taught him life is tragic enough without painting pictures of it. Now he likes to believe his paintings give the mind's eye a place to rest and bring comfort to the weary traveler.

Five Local Favorites at USCB

Written by Editor

Tuesday, 28 August 2012 11:48

Flora and Fauna of the USCB, a book by the USCB, is a comprehensive guide to the flora and fauna of the USCB. It is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the natural history of the USCB.

Five Local Favorites at USCB

Written by Editor

Tuesday, 28 August 2012 11:48

6. Hall of Mirrors by Robert Rauschenberg, 1974. This painting is a prime example of Rauschenberg's "Color/Line" series, featuring a complex, layered composition of colors and lines.

7. The Great Wall of China by Robert Rauschenberg, 1981. This painting is a prime example of Rauschenberg's "Color/Line" series, featuring a complex, layered composition of colors and lines.