Extensive travels have given Juliana Kim ample material to investigate the essence of space and place. When she moved from Boston to Hilton Head Island, she embraced her new environment by painting landscapes "en plein air." For this exhibition, she has taken 3 elements and explored her personal journey through them. "Water" has always been a concern, ecologically and aesthetically. "Air," with its dance of sunlight, atmosphere and color, has enthralled her. Earth-bound, the majestic Live Oak straddles both, reaching out for endurance and connection.

Kim's education includes extensive art history (Vassar) and studio art (School of the Museum of Fine Arts, Boston). She has had 20 solo exhibits and more than 45 group exhibits. Kim is an Exhibiting Artist at Art League of Hilton Head and has been on its Board for 8 years.
