The Beaufort Art Association's 56th Annual Spring Show will be open to the public from Wednesday, March 8, through Saturday, March 11, from 10 am to 6 pm at Tabby Place, 913 Port Republic St. in Downtown Beaufort. Local artists will present their finest works for exhibit and for sale during the show. Oils acrylics, watercolors, photography, mixed media, pottery, woodturning, jewelry, and metal sculpture will be featured. Admission is free and the public is invited.

This year, judging the entries will be Savannah artist William Armstrong (self-portrait above). Founder of the Savannah Museum of Art, he is an accomplished artist, painter, sculptor and craftsman. Starting out at the age of 14 as a sign painter in Newark, NJ, He went on to become one of the world's leading scenic artists, creating dozens of movie sets with Martin Scorsese, Steve Spielberg, Spike Lee and Woody Allen. Among his ornate movie sets featured in Architectural Digest have been "Meet Joe Black" and "Bagger Vance," the project that brought Armstrong and his wife Monique to Savannah, where they now live in a historic home.

Armstrong typically works from pen and ink drawings and pencil sketches, carefully observing
