Art League welcomes featured artist Kendra Natter, whose show Photographic Journey of the Lowcountry is a reflection of Natter's ever-evolving photography and digital arts. Natter is an active board member of the Camera Club of Hilton Head Island. The natural environment of the Lowcountry has been a regular theme of her work.

Natter's work has been featured in the Hilton Head Library, Hilton Head Hospital, the Bluffton Branch Library, Wild Birds Unlimited, Coastal Discovery Museum, SoBA and Art League of Hilton Head. Natter's photographs have been recognized and awarded numerous ribbons over the past 12 years.

Originally from Pennsylvania, Kendra moved to the area 12 years ago. When she is not shooting, Natter spends her time teaching photography, giving photo tours, printing and custom framing.
