

Art League Gallery showcases local talent with international fame

Jan Ross, a beloved instructor at Art League Academy, will be showcasing her watercolor paintings at Art League Gallery this August. Ross is known for her technique of layering pigment to produce vibrant, translucent colors; her work is bold, cheerful, and sometimes humorous, presenting people and places in a loving light. She strives to capture the personality of a person, or draw attention to overlooked details in a landscape or ordinary objects.

A watercolor artist for over 30 years, Jan's formal art training began at the Chicago Academy of Fine Arts. Ross has studied with some of America's top watercolor painters. Eight different watercolor societies in the U.S. have awarded her "Signature Membership," their highest credential for achievement in

Jan Ross Watercolors

Written by Editor
Tuesday, 21 July 2020 10:31

watercolors. She was also named "Member of Excellence," the highest award of the Atlanta Artists Center, the largest art organization in the Southeast. Her award-winning watercolors have been accepted in more than 500 local, regional, national and international juried competitions, as well as numerous one-woman and invitational exhibitions. Her work has been published extensively, and hangs in collections across the U.S and Europe.

Jan Ross Watercolors will be on display August 4-29, 2020. Please check Art League's Facebook page (@ArtLeagueHiltonHead) for live events with the artist.

Art League Gallery is dedicated to providing as safe an environment as possible. To that end, Art League is following all CDC and Town of Hilton Head guidelines, including mandatory masks for patrons and all employees, contactless and cashless service, frequent sanitization of the gallery, and a limit of 10 visitors in the gallery at any one time. Art League Gallery is located mid-island inside Arts Center of Coastal Carolina, 14 Shelter Cove Lane, Hilton Head Island, 843-681-5060.