

Art for Your Sweetheart

Written by Editor

Wednesday, 04 February 2009 04:59

A Valentine's celebration to benefit E.C. Montessori's Diversity Scholarship Fund

On Valentine's Day, the Charles Street Gallery is hosting an exhibit of artwork donated by local textile and jewelry artists, painters, potters, and photographers, including Paul Keyserling, Carol Madeja, Cabell Heyward, Jada Gray, Jim Rothnie, Jacob Preston, Ava Franzolini, Andrea Lambros, Marisa Reilly, Sharon DeAlexandris, Gary Geboy, Benton Lutz, Rebecca Davenport, Steve Johnson, Bill Mead, Stacy Gartner, and John Bertagna.

The fundraiser runs from 5pm to 10pm, so drop in before dinner for champagne and savories, or stop by after dinner for sweets and coffee. You can pick up that last minute gift to win a heart (and steal ours in the process).

All proceeds will benefit E.C. Montessori & Grade School's Diversity Scholarship Fund, allowing children from diverse cultural and economic backgrounds to become artists in their own right.

The Charles Street Gallery is located in downtown historic Beaufort, 914 Charles Street, 29902. Call 521-9054 or visit www.thecharlesstreetgallery.com for more information.