

Who doesn't love animals? From household pets to beasts in the wild, Beaufort Art Association Gallery is hosting a new exhibit called "Animals We Love." The Association has over 200 local member artists and over 75 will be exhibiting their favorite creatures – great and small.

Featuring all mediums: acrylics, watercolor, oil, pastel and mixed media, along with fine art photography and digital art, the show runs through June 25. Also on display is a wide variety of fine hand crafted jewelry, hand painted silk scarves, wood turned bowls, sculpture and raku pottery.

A wine and cheese reception will be held on Friday May 6th from 5:00 – 7:00. The public is invited to attend.

For more information about “The Animals We Love” exhibit or the organization in general, please visit www.BeaufortArtAssociation.com or call the BAA Gallery at 843-521-4444.

Above:

"Blues Brothers" by Paul Rossman

"Heading into the Night" by Gina Sismilich