

"Watercolor is a challenging but fun medium! We will explore various techniques for rendering landscapes, still lifes and figures and other subjects from either classroom set-ups or photos. All levels of artists will benefit from and enjoy this workshop," says Jan Ross, award-winning Daufuskie Island artist and instructor. Ross will hold a 3-day watercolor workshop for students of all levels at Art League Academy in October.

The workshop will be held from 10 am - 4 pm, Thursday, October 12 through Saturday, October 14. Cost is $270/Art League Members; $300/Non-members
