

To say Terry Brennan is a well-known local artist is an understatement.

He has been an exhibiting artist at The Society of Bluffton Artists (SoBA) for 22 years. His oil and watercolor paintings have been displayed in art galleries in Bluffton, Beaufort, Charleston and Hilton head Island. Additionally, he has served on the board of directors and as president for the Art League of Hilton Head Island and SoBA.

Brennan will exhibit his seventh art show, "Low Country Palette," October 6-November 3, at the SoBA Gallery, located at 6 Church Street in Old Town Bluffton. Come meet the artist during an opening reception from 3-5 p.m. Sunday, Oct. 13 at the gallery. Brennan also will give a demonstration of a Lowcountry oil painting from 10 a.m. to 1 p.m. Friday, Oct. 18 at the gallery. These events are free and open to the public.

Brennan's October exhibit will feature his favorite subject matter — more than 18 exquisite Lowcountry scenes.

"Capturing the vibrant and ever-changing colors of the marsh and sky is a constant challenge,
