

Anything Goes!, an exhibit of member art at Art League Gallery, celebrates the depth and breadth of artwork created by Art League exhibiting members. Truly anything goes at this exhibit: any media, size, shape, form or subject. From 2D media such as painting and photography to 3D art including sculpture, ceramics and jewelry, all artworks will be on display and for sale.

"We're so proud of what our members accomplish," says Kristen McIntosh, General Manager. "Seeing them push their limits and produce work of this caliber is incredibly rewarding. Any gallery would be proud to showcase these pieces."

The use of new media and processes are encouraged. The winners of three People's Choice awards will be Elisavinda Schuchman, "The Painter," 2015, oil on canvas, 18" x 24". The painting depicts a person in a blue shirt and jeans, carrying a white bucket and a long-handled tool, walking away from the viewer on a path. The person is wearing a red cap and is walking on a light-colored path that leads into a wooded area. The background is filled with green foliage and trees. The painting has a visible brushstroke texture.
