

The Art League Gallery of Hilton Head presents ART OF THE LOWCOUNTRY, a show of 17 renowned artists portraying their impressions of the essence of the beauty that surrounds us.

The show opens with a reception on Tuesday, August 12 from 5:00-7:00 p.m. at the Art League Gallery in Pineland Station, Hilton Head Island. The exhibition runs from August 11 through September 6. Join us for refreshments and meet all the artists!

“Art of the Lowcountry allows viewers to choose from 17 different interpretations of Lowcountry landscapes by artists, who specialize in Lowcountry scenes. This show is a “must see” for lovers of Lowcountry art,” says Terry Brennan. “Our beautiful surroundings turn on my creative juices. The marshes, beaches and boats, all plead to be painted and I try to follow that call,” adds Evelyn Kowtko. The artists – TERRY BRENNAN • LAURA CODY • RICHARD COYNE • CHERYL EPPOLITO • EVELYN KOWTKO • JUDY McELLYNN • DON NAGEL • JOYCE NAGEL • NANCY NELSON • JOHN NORLANDER • DORIS SHAY • LINDA SHEPPARD • BOBSY SIMES • BARB SNOW • ANITA STEPHENS • KATHY TORTORELLA • EMILY WILSON – will celebrate the enchanting qualities of our majestic live oaks, richly colored sunsets, and the ever changing marshes. Their versatility and skill will be shown in all mediums, oil, pastel, watercolor, and acrylic. Some of the artists prefer to paint on location – en plein air – others take a photograph and work on their composition in the studio. Some render their creativity in faithful detail; others focus on the basic forms, colors, and light.

Kathy Tortorella states, “This show is why we all live here. We love the Lowcountry but as artists we are lucky to have it as an endless source of inspiration. I look forward to seeing all of our art together in one space; I think it’s a first. I hope everyone will come out to experience the diversity of our interpretations.”

This exhibition embodies the culture and nature of our Lowcountry; it is a perfect union of our local artistic talent and how our senses perceive the views, sounds, smells, and tastes. Close to a hundred Art League artists will also be showing their artwork.

Come and you might fall in love with a gem of Lowcountry art you can take home and enjoy for the rest of your life!
