

The Friday Organ Concerts at Noon series begins on March 14 at the Parish Church of St. Helena located at 505 Church Street in historic downtown Beaufort.

The concerts are free and feature accomplished organists from across the country. World-renowned organist, S. Wayne Foster, will perform the first concert of the spring series on Friday, March 14. Spend an hour being soothed and excited by the music of these incredible artists, while relaxing in the beauty of our historic church. Come early and take a tour of the church. Invite your friends and neighbors to join you. Donations are gratefully accepted.

Concert Schedule

March 14, S. Wayne Foster, organist in residence at First Congregational Church in Los Angeles, California.

March 28, Preston Smith, director of music at The Roman Catholic Church of the Ascension, New York City.

April 5, Dr. Scott Bennett, organist and master of the music, Grace Episcopal Church, Charleston, S.C.

April 18, Adam Pajan, senior organ performance major at Furman University and organist and choirmaster at St. Mary's Catholic Church, Greenville, S.C.

For questions, musician biographical information, and digital photographs, please contact Pat Gould, Director of Music for the Parish Church of St. Helena, at 522-1712.