Based on the Broadway stories of Damon Runyon, "Guys and Dolls" tells the tale of Nathan Detroit (Zachery Wells), the organizer of the oldest established permanent floating crap game in New York, who bets fellow gambler Sky Masterson (Elliott Chucta) that he can't make the next girl he sees fall in love with him. That "next girl" is Miss Sarah Brown (Allie Fraley), a pure-at-heart Salvation Army-type reformer. Meanwhile, Nathan is having trouble with his own girlfriend, Adelaide, (Ellen Hodges) who after 14 years of dating is ready for marriage. "Guys and Dolls" is a cornerstone of the musical comedy stage that continues to delight audiences over 50 years after its Broadway premiere. Featuring the songs "Luck be a Lady" and "Sit Down You're Rockin' the Boat," this musical is the perfect balance of story, dance, music, and romance.

Written by composer/lyricist Frank Loesser, with a book by Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows, "Guys and Dolls" won a Best Musical Tony for the original 1951 production, and a second Tony for Best Revival for the 1995 production starring Faith Prince and Nathan Lane. The musical also received international attention thanks to the 1955 MGM motion picture adaptation featuring Marlon Brando, Jean Simmons and Frank Sinatra.
