

USCB Center For The Arts announces Beaufort Theater Company's production of Forbidding Broadway's Greatest Hits, a hilarious, loving and endlessly entertaining tribute to many of Broadway's biggest shows. Laugh out loud as the cast parodies selections from Annie, Wicked, Les Misables, Phantom of the Opera and Cats, as well as Broadway legends like Carol Channing, Ethel Merman, Chita Rivera and Liza Minnelli.

Conceived and written by Gerard Alessandrini, Forbidding Broadway is a nine-time winner of the prestigious Drama Desk Award for Outstanding Revue and additionally received its own special Tony Award. The show is so funny and fast moving that Forbidding Broadway has been called The Saturday Night Live of Broadway by The Today Show.

As the sister production to last spring's most successful A Tribute To Broadway, the audience can now see the tongue-in-cheek reaction of the off Broadway want-to-be-Broadway actors to those long running Broadway actors and their iconic roles. This is a hilarious spoof of Broadway's memorable hits with sidesplitting twists of lyrics - such as: WICKED Defying Subtlety, FIDDLER ON THE ROOF - Ambition, and A CHORUS LINE What I Did For Laughs. You'll love Annie as she confesses that she will be forty years old tomorrow and begs revive me, revive me as tomorrow is yesterday. The cast includes: Curtis Dansby, Corrie Frohnappel, Janet Gregory, Kelly Hall, Dan Hodges, Louise Hodges (above), Noah Krepps, Elaine Lake, Mike McFee (right), Velma Polk, Barry Reese, Julie Seibold, and Shelia Jenkins-Ward.

Forbidding Broadway's Greatest Hits performances are Friday and Saturdays, April 20, 21, 27, 28 at 7:30 pm with one Matinee Sunday, April 29 at 3 pm at USCB Center for the Arts, 805 Carteret St. Beaufort, SC. Tickets are Adults $30, Senior/Military $25, Students/Children
