

Beginning on October 3, the popular Shorts at High Noon film series will return to the Technical College of the Lowcountry for another eight week run. The program features the very best of Short, Student, and Animation Films from the archives of the Beaufort Film Society. The films selected for screening have all screened at the Beaufort International Film Festival as Finalists from 2007 through 2018.

Exception: The programs scheduled for screening on November 28 will be from the submissions to BIFF 2019. The audience in attendance that day will vote for their favorite film. The winning selection will compete in BIFF 2019 as a Finalist. The complete schedule is at beaufortfilmfestival.com. All screenings are at Noon to 1pm at the Technical College of the Lowcountry, Building 12, Auditorium, at 921 Ribaut Road, Beaufort. Admission is Free.
