

Beaufort Resident Debuts Charleston Book

Written by Editor
Tuesday, 31 May 2016 07:37

Charleston Salt and Iron, the latest book by Beaufort resident Wendy Nilsen Pollitzer, was released by Lydia Inglett Publishing / Starbooks at a debut event in Charleston on May 8 during Second Sunday on King Street. The book will debut in Beaufort at Saltus River Grill on Thursday, June 9 from 5 – 7pm.

For this lush, high-quality, coffee-table book, Pollitzer sought out a diverse group of Charleston's most beloved citizens, including business leaders, writers, artists and musicians and asked each of them, "What does Charleston mean to you?" Charleston Salt and Iron answers that question through a collection of photography and essays on the history, hospitality and grace of the South's crown jewel. The book captures the sentiments of a proud community and will be a commemorative heirloom of true Southern charm.

Charleston Salt and Iron features dynamic photography by Charleston's best photographers

Beaufort Resident Debuts Charleston Book

Written by Editor

Tuesday, 31 May 2016 07:37

