

Frank Roberts' Lady's Island Oyster Farm brings a sustainably harvested oyster to the Lowcountry

"As I ate the oysters with their strong taste of the sea and their faint metallic taste that the cold white wine washed away, leaving only the sea taste and the succulent texture, and as I drank their cold liquid from each shell and washed it down with the crisp taste of the wine, I lost the empty feeling and began to be happy and to make plans."

- Ernest Hemingway, A Moveable Feast

It's a crisp morning in late November on Brown's Island and the dock on Half Moon Creek, home base for Frank Roberts' Lady's Island Oyster Farm. A cold front blew through last night and took with it all

Written by Mark Shaffer
Wednesday, 07 December 2011 13:36

Wednesday, 07 December 2011 13:36

