

Renowned Artist Jonathan Green and Poet Laureate Marjory Wentworth Featured at USCB Lunch with Author Series

Throughout the Lowcountry the mention of Jonathan Green evokes visions of prime color paintings of women in big hats with billowing skirts, Gullahs at praise houses, men in corn fields, azure blue water and lighter blue skies with cotton ball clouds, and the endless marshlands... described by Green as the most beautiful place on earth. And there's not much earth where his art has not been viewed.

On Thursday, July 11 Jonathan Green will talk about his masterpiece SEEKING and the prose, poetry and music it inspired from artists throughout the country. Marjory Wentworth, South Carolina Poet Laureate and co-editor of the literary masterpiece, Seeking, will join Green as part of the USCB Lunch With Author Summer Series. The luncheon will be held at Hampton Hall Clubhouse, Bluffton, starting at noon followed by both artists' talks, Q&A and book signing. Reservations are made at 843-521-4147 or kingsley@uscb.edu. All-inclusive price is $42.
