The Photography Club of Beaufort recently announced the winners of their Fall 2014 semi-annual competition. Judges were Brian Glaze, assistant professor of studio art at USC-Beaufort; Nancy Rhett, well-known local artist and book illustrator; and professional photographer, Gary Geboy.

Scoring is based on three major aspects of each image: technical quality, composition and impact. The judges noted the exceptional quality of the images in all four skill levels. The club meets on the Second Monday of every month at 7pm at ArtWorks in the K-Mart Shopping Center on Boundary Street in Beaufort. The public is invited.

The winners are: Novice: First Place - Barbara Hazzard for "Sardargarh Hermit" (above); Second Place - Rebecca Bass for "Rainy Day in Bordeaux - A Study in Threes."
