Linda Sheppard will be the Featured Artist at Beaufort Art Association Gallery during April and May. Her exhibit, entitled "Painting at Home and Abroad," will include pastels, oils and watercolors of plein air work in France, Switzerland, England, Turkey, Italy, and Greece as well as figurative work of locals and Lowcountry landscapes and seascapes.

Linda was featured in The March issue of The Artists Magazine with her painting, "Memories at 98." She was selected as one of 10 finalists in the Over 60 Competition out of 2800 entries. Although they don't select a first prize, her painting, with accompanied story, was featured as the centerfold. "Memories at 98" will be hanging in her upcoming exhibition at the BAA Gallery. In addition, the American Artists Professional League in New York City recently upgraded her status to Fellow Magna Cum Laude.

Linda began painting over 50 years ago. Over these years she has developed an ability to
