

Tales In Thread

Written by Margaret Evans

Tuesday, 09 January 2018 12:42 - Last Updated Wednesday, 10 January 2018 07:00

Tales In Thread is a visually exciting and fun fiber art exhibit on display at the Hilton Head Public Library through February 3rd. The show features approximately two dozen works by 15 members of the "Outside the Block" art quilters, which is part of the Palmetto Quilt Guild.

Working in fabric, fiber and threads, each artist was challenged to create a visual interpretation of a literary work. Viewers will enjoy some well-known favorites including fairy tales, as well as stories and poems all translated into art quilts. For more information, visit www.beaufortcountylibrary.org

Above: 'The Owl & The Pussycat,' by Janet Johnson