

Written by Mark Shaffer

Tuesday, 06 March 2018 07:07 - Last Updated Wednesday, 07 March 2018 06:13

Fleetwood Covington's Blues Soaked Art Comes to USCB

By Mark Shaffer

I knew of Fleetwood Covington long before I finally met him prior to his 2015 show at the Thibault Gallery on Bay Street. Mostly I knew of him through his brother Vince as well as his sister-in-law – my longtime Lowcountry Weekly colleague – Debbi Covington. “Fleetwood’s quite a character,” she told me. I figured he had to be with a name like Fleetwood. I mean, how many Fleetwoods do you meet in life? And as if that were not enigmatic enough, in addition to being an artist with a considerable following, he’s also a musician, songwriter and Blues fanatic.

Raw Soul

Written by Mark Shaffer

Tuesday, 06 March 2018 07:07 - Last Updated Wednesday, 07 March 2018 06:13

get the most out of your experience. The best way to do this is to go to the source. In this case, that means going to the source of the information. The best way to do this is to go to the source. In this case, that means going to the source of the information.

and the most important thing to remember is that the best way to do this is to go to the source. In this case, that means going to the source of the information. The best way to do this is to go to the source. In this case, that means going to the source of the information.

Raw Soul

Written by Mark Shaffer

Tuesday, 06 March 2018 07:07 - Last Updated Wednesday, 07 March 2018 06:13

creativity. The simplest thing happened. It was rather late 80s or early 90s when the Mississippi Delta was

Raw Soul

Written by Mark Shaffer

Tuesday, 06 March 2018 07:07 - Last Updated Wednesday, 07 March 2018 06:13

Wrote this song for my friend who is a nurse and loves to dance. She is a very beautiful woman and a great friend.

Wrote this song for my friend who is a nurse and loves to dance. She is a very beautiful woman and a great friend.