

Richard Grant's Good Vibrations

Written by Margaret Evans

Tuesday, 21 January 2020 14:28 - Last Updated Wednesday, 22 January 2020 07:18

Local artist Richard Grant's February Featured Artist exhibit will pay homage to surfing and travel posters from the 1960s and 1970s. "Good Vibrations" will show from Feb. 5-29 at the Society of Bluffton Artists (SOBA) gallery in Old Town Bluffton. Come meet the artist during an opening reception from 5-7 p.m. Feb. 5th. These events are free and open to the public.

Grant reimagines sun, sand and surf using clean lines and negative space. He reduces a beach, a wave or a tree to seemingly simple images that lead to revelations of complexity.

"By capturing a mood, a feeling or even a time day, I hope to create a place where everyone can connect with the color and form of nature and emotion," Grant said.

Grant's work is influenced by artists with significant points of view who were known for pushing

Richard Grant's Good Vibrations

Written by Margaret Evans

Tuesday, 21 January 2020 14:28 - Last Updated Wednesday, 22 January 2020 07:18

<https://doi.org/10.1002/for.1491>