

Art League Offers Online Instruction

Written by Margaret Evans

Tuesday, 04 August 2020 10:11 - Last Updated Wednesday, 05 August 2020 05:38

Art League Academy now offers online classes, workshops and demos to students at all skill levels, including true beginners.

This August, Art League Academy is offering two virtual 4-week classes via Zoom taught by long-time Academy instructors Art Cornell and Alexandra Sharma.

Non-Objective Abstract Painting by Art Cornell is a mid-level class focusing on composition, texture and points of focus in abstract painting. Cornell, a fixture in the Lowcountry art scene, describes his own work as “raw emotion expressed in color, line and texture.” The classes will be held every Wednesday in August (5, 12, 19 & 26), 9:30am-12:30pm.

Academy favorite Alexandra Sharma is teaching The Watercolor Method for Landscape & Still Life on Thursdays in August (6, 13, 20 & 27), 9:30am-12:30pm. Classes will focus on painting intuitively, simplifying a landscape, and examining the qualities of light, perspective and volume. Sharma is a Sorbonne- and Oxford-

Art League Offers Online Instruction

Written by Margaret Evans

Tuesday, 04 August 2020 10:11 - Last Updated Wednesday, 05 August 2020 05:38

artleague.org