The USCB Center for the Arts kicks off its most ambitious season to date with Beaufort Theatre Company's production of fan favorite Mamma Mia! You can dance, you can jive, you can have the time of your life experiencing this Broadway smash-hit right here in the Lowcountry.

The tale, set to the energetic and irresistible hits of Swedish super group Abba, follows the journey of Sophie as she attempts to discern the identity of her father on the eve of her wedding. After finding her mother's diary, she sends out invites to the three men that turned her mother's life upside down over two decades before. Suddenly, Donna is forced to confront her pa st and consider her future. Along with their friends and the colorful occupants of the Greek island they call home, Donna and Sophie sing and dance their way to the ultimate wedding resolution.

Beaufort favorite Elaine Lake lends her formidable talent and charm to the role of Donna. Beside her are Lauren Cleland and Melissa Florence, providing support, levity, and tremendous vocals as best friends Tanya and Rosie. Kelly Hall, performer and dedicated Beaufort County teacher, graces the stage as the delightful and exuberant daughter, Sophie. Curtis Dansby plays Sophie's sweet, caring, and sometimes cheeky fiancé, Sky. James Duffy, Mike McFee, and Brad Ballington charm their way into Sophie's heart as the three prospective Dads.
