

Books Sandwiched In 2018

Written by Editor

Tuesday, 09 January 2018 12:45 - Last Updated Wednesday, 10 January 2018 08:47

---

Friends of the Beaufort Library have announced plans for the 2018 Books Sandwiched In program, which launches Jan. 22 with a look at the future of movies and concludes March 12 with a presentation by native Beaufortonian and best-selling author Valerie Sayers.

The popular Books Sandwiched In program features eight book reviews every Monday from noon until 1 p.m. at the USCB Center for the Arts, 805 Carteret Street, Beaufort. The event is free with coffee and cookies provided by the Friends.

"This program is our gift to the community for their great support over the years." And we know that the way to book lovers' hearts is by talking about books," said FoBL President Marilyn Harcharik.

Connie Farrell Scuderi, co-chair of the BSI, added "not only is BSI our gift to you but your support of our programs is a gift to the Beaufort Library and to the community as we continue and grow every year."

This year's program includes:

Jan. 22 - Do Movies Have a Future? by David Denby, review by Ron and Rebecca Tucker,

Books Sandwiched In 2018

Written by Editor

Tuesday, 09 January 2018 12:45 - Last Updated Wednesday, 10 January 2018 08:47

---

founders of the Beaufort International Film Festival.

Jan. 29 - Found Anew, edited by R. Mac Jones and Ray McManus, review by local author Susan Madison.

Feb. 5 - Small Great Things by Jodi Picoult, reviewed by Dr. Patrick Perryman of First Presbyterian Church, Beaufort.

Feb. 12 - Driving with the Devil, by Neal Thompson, reviewed by Ted Barber

Feb. 19 - The Bad-Ass Librarians of Timbuktu by Joshua Hammer, reviewed by Laurie McCall and Elijah Heywood, Jr.

Feb. 26 - The Club Dumas by Arturo Perez-Reverte and The Shadow of the Wind by Carlos Ruiz Zafon, reviewed by David and Lorrie Anderson, owners of Nevermore Books.

March 5 - Dead Wake by Erik Larson, reviewed by TCL History Professor Greg Mauri court

March 12- Who Do You Love by Valerie Sayers, presented by Ms. Sayers.

The Friends of Beaufort Library is an all-volunteer group which supports the Beaufort, Lobe co and St. Helena libraries. Through memberships, fundraising and volunteers, we fund all the programs, classes, books, equipment and other materials that the state and county budgets don't cover. For more information, visit www.friendsofthebeaufortlibrary.com