The Pat Conroy Literary Center's second annual Children's Book Fair will be held Saturday, October 12, 10:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m., at the Santa Elena History Center, 1501 Bay Street. One of Pat Conroy's passions in life was to foster in every child a great love of books, and this day is dedicated to encouraging a lifelong companionship with books and realizing the Conroy Center's mission of transforming lives through stories. This project is funded in part by SC Humanities, a state program of the National Endowment for the Humanities. The event is free and open to the public.

Open to readers of all ages, but focused on children ages 4-12, the Children's Book Fair is a day-long event of interactive workshops, readings, and book signings. Some of this year's events will include a treasure hunt led by Susan Diamond Riley, author of the recently released The Sea Island's Secret; face painting; book give-aways throughout the day; a Beaufort County Library System bookmobile, offering young attendees a chance to get their first library cards and to check out books; and, a "banned book jail cell" featuring children's books that have been banned in the past. Incarcerated books will include

Winnie the Pooh

by A.A. Milne

, Where the Wild

Things Are

by Maurice Sendak

and

The Lorax Tree

by Dr. Seuss

to name just three. Marjory Wentworth, South Carolina's poet laureate will lead a discussion on the history of banned books. Lunch will be available for purchase on-site during the Children's Book Fair.

Interested attendees are encouraged to register in advance at

- • 12:00-12:30 p.m. - Rebecca Chamberlain - Telling Stories Through Pictures: This workshop touches on the process of illustrating a standard 32-page picture book for children. Participants preview thumbnail sketches and original artwork from Maralee and the Turtles of the Sea as they create quick one-inch thumbnail sketches from a story idea. Discover how to develop a character and explore how to add movement, emotion, and action into illustrations. A picture book template is provided to each participant. This course is suitable for all skill levels, from beginner to experienced artist. Standard pencils and erasers are needed for this workshop.

- • 12:30-1:00 p.m. - Helen Wilbur - Write Your Garden: Participants work on their skills with a hands-on exercise using their five senses to build a word garden. In this session for budding writers, author Helen Wilbur shares her story of a young girl's determination to grow her garden in Lily's Victory Garden. With the right tools, discover how an idea as small as a seed can be nurtured to grow into a story. Young writers will build a word garden. Ages 8 and older.

- • 2:00-3:00 p.m. - Susan Diamond Riley - Find Your Lost Treasure: Following a reading from her newly published chapter book, The Sea Island's Secret, Susan Diamond Riley will send participants on a treasure hunt to find previously hidden messages in bottles. Once found, the messages will be decoded to reveal their hidden meanings. Ages 8 and older.

- • 2:00-3:00 p.m.- BOOKMOBILE

- • 3:00-4:00 p.m. - Marlena Smalls - Readings and Stories in Song:
