A Day to Wander and Love the Land...

“Place and land and nature: how we tie these things together is critical to our sense of self-purpose and our fit in the world. They are the trinity. This is true for people everywhere, but nowhere is it truer than in the South.”

—J. Drew Lanham, excerpt from The Home Place: Memoirs of a Colored Man’s Love Affair with Nature

The Pat Conroy Literary Center will hold its second public program of 2017 on Saturday, March 4th at the Frissell Community Center at Penn Center on St. Helena Island. Commemorating the anniversary of Pat Conroy’s passing, March Forth/March Fourth will be a day-long embrace of nature, culture, and the arts.
