Beaufort's southern lifestyle and home furnishings store Scout Southern Market and Sweet Tea Bar is celebrating five years of business on Bay Street, and is opening celebrations to the public.

On Saturday, July 27th from 9 - 11am at 709 Bay St Scout will be hosting an old fashioned birthday party complete with:

- ☐ Goodie bags for the first 50 customers (no purchase needed)
- ☐ Beach balls for the first 50 children in attendance
- ☐ Complimentary treats from the sweet tea bar, including cupcakes, macaroons, caramel popcorn, and mini sweet tea floats.

For entertainment, a raffle will also be held from 9:30 - 11am, in addition to the showing of Forrest Gump and a balloon animal artist. Guests will be encouraged to take selfies in front of Scout Southern Market's new mural wall, hand painted by local artist, Weezy Alcott.

Of the celebration owner Ann Higgins says, "We couldn't be happier to be celebrating 5 years in the lowcountry, especially a town as special as Beaufort, and we can't wait to celebrate with our loyal customers!"

About Scout Southern Market:

Scout Southern Market sells fine home decor, gifts, and small batch specialty foods from southern states, with products from hand picked local southern artisans. Scout is also home to the Original Sweet Tea Floats, which are handmade in-store. Customers have been drawn into the store by its beautiful southern decor, and inquiries have led to Scout's new and growing interior design services.

About Ann Higgins:

Owner Ann Higgins and her family moved to Beaufort from San Francisco in 2014. Drawn into southern life, she's been dubbed a "southern enthusiast" and today you can find her exploring the lowcountry, traveling, and hunting for antique textiles and china. Ann is also passionate about historic preservation and serves on the Board of Historic Beaufort Foundation.
