

Cooking with the Movies

Written by Debbi Covington

Monday, 08 February 2016 13:47 - Last Updated Tuesday, 09 February 2016 16:30

Roll out the red carpet! The 10th annual Beaufort International Film Festival is in full swing with filmmakers, directors, screenwriters, movie stars and lots of film-loving fans. Food has always been a key ingredient on the big screen. The recipes this week feature a taste of five of our favorite films including Interwoven, a new film from Beaufort's own filmmaker, VW Scheich.

It's not too late to purchase your golden ticket! For more information about the Beaufort International Film Festival and to purchase movie and event tickets visit www.beaufortfilmfestival.com

. See you at the movies!

p.s. Thank you, Susan DeLoach, official photographer for the Beaufort International Film Festival, for taking these beautiful photos of my movie-inspired culinary creations!

From Julie and Julia

With recipes from Julia Child, the film is filled with delicious food. One of the first enticements is chocolate pie, but many delectables follow: bruschetta, artichokes with hollandaise sauce,

Cooking with the Movies

Written by Debbi Covington

Monday, 08 February 2016 13:47 - Last Updated Tuesday, 09 February 2016 16:30

soufflés, lobster thermidor, roast chicken stuffed with chicken livers and cream cheese, the famous boeuf bourguignon, raspberry Bavarian cream, and finally, boned duck stuffed and baked in a pastry shell.

Tomato and Basil Bruschetta (above)

1 pound ripe grape tomatoes, sliced

1/3 cup fresh basil, chopped

Sea salt

Freshly ground black pepper

1 loaf crusty French bread, sliced ¾-inch thick

2 garlic cloves, peeled and sliced in half

¼ cup extra-virgin olive oil

4 ounces Parmesan cheese, shredded

Mix tomatoes and basil together in a small bowl. Season with salt and pepper and set aside. Place bread slices on a baking sheet and broil until golden brown on both sides. Rub one side with garlic clove and brush with olive oil. Drain the tomato-basil mixture of excess liquid and spoon on to each slice of bread. Top with Parmesan cheese. Serve immediately. Serves 6 to 8.

Cooking with the Movies

Written by Debbi Covington

Monday, 08 February 2016 13:47 - Last Updated Tuesday, 09 February 2016 16:30

From The Godfather

Food is one of the most powerful ways the audience gets to know the Corleone family, who like many immigrant families, used food to maintain their traditions. The significance of food is emphasized throughout the film, beginning with the opening scene at the wedding of Connie Corleone --- an extravagant event featuring plates of lasagna, antipasto salad and a gigantic white wedding cake that's carried through the crowd of guests.

Antipasto Salad

For the vinaigrette:

3 tablespoons red wine vinegar

1 small clove garlic, minced

Cooking with the Movies

Written by Debbi Covington

Monday, 08 February 2016 13:47 - Last Updated Tuesday, 09 February 2016 16:30

½ teaspoon sugar

½ teaspoon salt

1/8 teaspoon black pepper

6 tablespoons extra-virgin olive oil

Whisk together all ingredients in a small bowl until well combined.

For the pasta:

1 (9-ounce) package refrigerated cheese tortellini

¼ cup bottled Italian dressing

Cook pasta according to package directions. Drain well and toss with Italian dressing. Set aside to cool.

For the salad:

8 ounces mixed salad greens

8 artichoke hearts, halved

Cooking with the Movies

Written by Debbi Covington

Monday, 08 February 2016 13:47 - Last Updated Tuesday, 09 February 2016 16:30

12 grape tomatoes, sliced

Sliced black olives

Sliced peperoncini

Sliced pepperoni

Fresh mozzarella cheese, sliced

Dried oregano

Capers, drained

Spread salad greens on a large plate and scatter with cheese tortellini, artichokes, tomatoes, olives, peperoncini and pepperoni. Top with sliced mozzarella cheese. Season with dried oregano and garnish with capers. Whisk vinaigrette and drizzle over salad. Serves 6.

From Interwoven

Takashi: "I brought for you, well, actually for him." Jessie: "Is that chicken and waffles?"

Takashi: "Your brother's favorite, right? In my culture we honor the person's passing into the next world by remembering how they lived, what they loved, what gave them joy. These are the things we cherish. I would like to perform a ceremony for your brother and offer this food to him to comfort him wherever his spirit may be. And, by comforting him, maybe, you can gain some

Cooking with the Movies

Written by Debbi Covington

Monday, 08 February 2016 13:47 - Last Updated Tuesday, 09 February 2016 16:30

peace, too.”

Buttermilk Chicken and Waffles

For the chicken:

4 boneless, skinless chicken breast halves

2 cups buttermilk

2 cup corn flakes cereal, crushed

1/3 cup grated Parmesan cheese

1 tablespoon mustard powder

Cooking with the Movies

Written by Debbi Covington

Monday, 08 February 2016 13:47 - Last Updated Tuesday, 09 February 2016 16:30

¼ teaspoon garlic salt

½ teaspoon cayenne pepper

4 tablespoons butter, melted

Marinate chicken in buttermilk for a least 8 hours. Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Combine cereal, cheese, mustard powder, garlic salt, and pepper in a shallow dish or pie plate. Shake excess buttermilk from chicken and dip each piece in the cereal mixture, coating well on both sides. Place chicken on a baking rack on a foil-lined baking sheet. Spray the rack with cooking spray. Drizzle chicken with melted butter. Bake for 35 to 40 minutes or until chicken is golden brown and cooked through.

For the waffles:

2 cups all-purpose flour

1 teaspoon baking soda

½ teaspoon salt

2 eggs, separated

2 cups buttermilk

Cooking with the Movies

Written by Debbi Covington

Monday, 08 February 2016 13:47 - Last Updated Tuesday, 09 February 2016 16:30

¼ cup butter, melted

Maple syrup

Combine flour, soda and salt; set aside. Combine egg yolks, buttermilk and butter; add to flour mixture, stirring briskly until blended. Beat egg whites (at room temperature) until stiff peaks form; carefully fold into batter. Bake in preheated oiled waffle iron.

To assemble chicken and waffles:

Place of piece of chicken on top of a waffle and drizzle with generous amounts of maple syrup. Serves 4.

From My Big Fat Greek Wedding

Toula: "So, what happens is my dad and uncles, they fight over who gets to eat the lamb brain. And then my aunt Voula forks the eyeball and chases me around with it, trying to get me to eat it, 'cause it's gonna make me smart. So, you have two cousins, I have twenty-seven first cousins. Just twenty-seven first cousins alone! And my whole family is big and loud. And everybody is in each other's lives and business. All the time! Like, you never just have a minute alone, just to think! 'Cause we're always together, just eating, eating, eating!"

Spanakopita

4 (10-ounce) packages frozen chopped spinach, thawed and squeezed dry

Monday, 08 February 2016 13:47 - Last Updated Tuesday, 09 February 2016 16:30

[illegible]