

Homes for the Holidays

Written by Elizabeth Dardes
Tuesday, 13 November 2012 12:38

A playful winter scene is in the works for this year's Beaufort Homes for the Holidays annual gala, Friday evening, November 16 in St. Peter's Walsh Palmetto Room. The ball kicks off the weekend home tour at Islands of Beaufort. Wintery white, beguiling and jumping with the jazz and dance sounds of Deas Guys, the gala's theme is a Snow Ball sure to belie any conventional predilections as event planner Ashley Rhodes and Granville catering of Charleston work their creative winter magic.

During dance breaks, guests can view the original art, trips and excursions, themed dinner parties and jewelry that are part of the night's silent auction, while enjoying specialty drinks, open bar and elaborate dessert station. Tickets are $75 per person and may be purchased by calling 522-6510.

Saturday and Sunday's tour showcases seven private homes professionally decorated for the holidays by local interior and floral designers in the tranquil, traditional neighborhood that is Islands of Beaufort. The stately clubhouse will be open for refreshments as guests tour each of the neighborhood's three diverse islands. Tree-lined streets with

Homes for the Holidays

Written by Elizabeth Dardes

Tuesday, 13 November 2012 12:38

