

Fashion for Compassion

Written by Editor
Tuesday, 03 April 2018 09:00

Friends of Caroline Hospice will host their annual fashion show event, “Fashion for Compassion,” on Friday, April 20th, starting at 5pm at Tabby Place in historic downtown Beaufort.

Now in its 15th year, the event features the latest fashions from Beaufort’s local shops and boutiques, a live auction, door prizes and lots more.

Guests will have the opportunity to see hand-selected outfits from more than 15 local shops covering women's, men's and kids' fashions and accessories with volunteer models from our community strutting their stuff on the runway.

Tickets for the event are $65 for runway seating (limited supply) and $55 general admission and can be purchased online at www.friendsofcarolinehospice.org Limited seating is available.

Ticket purchase includes access to the live auction and the fashion show, along with hors d'oeuvres and a complimentary drink ticket.

All proceeds from the event benefit Friends of Caroline Hospice.