FWDG is now carrying a rug by Rizzy Home designed by Connie Post and Rizzy Home; 25% of the sales of this rug through November 30th will benefit The Breast Cancer Research Foundation. Connie Post is an award winning furniture retailer consultant; consulted on FWDG's recent renovations and through that partnership became friends with FWDG founder Larry Mark.

The mission of the Breast Cancer Research Foundation is to prevent and cure breast cancer by advancing the world's most promising research.

"Connie was diagnosed with breast cancer during our renovation," said Larry Mark, founder and President of FWDG. "We watched her fight with grace and determination - and win! These rugs represent her spirit and personality but also are an important tool to raise money for breast cancer research and treatment."

Made in India, the hand carved, looped wool rugs are available in 8x10 and 5x8 sizes and feature stunning pink peonies. The 8x10 rug retails at $849.99 and the 5x8 rug retails for $469.99.

Connie Post describes what influenced her choice of flower for the rug's design. "The peony is
