

Lady's Island Elementary Performing Arts students breathe new life into timeless classics.

During this year's Beaufort County School District sponsored Drama Festival held at the Arts Center of Coastal Carolina on Hilton Head, a group of 3rd and 4th grade drama and musical theatre students of Lynda McLain(drama) and Kristin Brady (music) studied and performed Hans Christian Andersen's THUMBELINA. Later in January, this troupe of actors also performed for the Gala Opening of the new Arts Center at Beaufort High School along with Seriously Fun-e Clowns, Seaside Singers and the gifted dance troupe called LEAP, taught by Theonette Labyzon, the school dance instructor.

COME FLY WITH US! This is not an airline commercial but an invitation to the community to think happy thoughts and fly to Never Land with the 4th grade students and 2nd and 3rd grade LEAP dancers, who are preparing the magical classic by J.M. Barrie PETER PAN, slated for Tuesday March 23 rd

at 6:30pm at the Beaufort High School auditorium.

Included will be songs from the 1950's stage version with Mary Martin and a marvelous Captain Hook , who is a BCSD Music teacher and wants to remain anonymous so he can surprise his students who will be attending!

Literature Comes to Life

Written by Editor

Tuesday, 16 March 2010 11:56

The play is at the 12th Annual Children's Hospital Foundation Play Night at the Medical Center on March 12, 2010. The play is a 12th Annual Children's Hospital Foundation Play Night at the Medical Center on March 12, 2010. The play is a 12th Annual Children's Hospital Foundation Play Night at the Medical Center on March 12, 2010.