

More Laughs

Written by Editor
Tuesday, 02 September 2008 13:33

The new Hilton Head Comedy Club continues its "Headliners Only" policy in September with back-to-back appearances by a pair of touring comedians with extensive television and live performance credentials.

Todd Yohn, a musically based comedian known nationwide on the syndicated "Bob & Tom" and "Bob and Sherry" shows, moves into the intimate venue at 430 Wm. Hilton Pkwy. for performances Sept. 9-13.

Then, Sept. 16-20, the club hosts the return of Ron Shock, honored as "America's Greatest Storyteller" by the Las Vegas Review-Journal.

Yohn's guitar and vocals are featured on his own comedy tunes such as "Orange Barrels" and "The Feminine Hygiene Song" while Shock takes a different stylistic approach with his personal and engaging tales about his life.

Hilton Head Comedy Club features a full bar and select menu. Shows are at 8 p.m. weekdays and 8 and 10 p.m. Fri.-Sat. Admission for those 18 years and older is $10 per person weekdays and $12 weekends.

Advance reservations are recommended by phoning (843) 681-7757.

{mosimage}